STAMFORD TOWN COUNCIL Newsletter

A QUARTERLY UPDATE OF NEWS AND VIEWS FROM STAMFORD TOWN COUNCIL

Number 1 - August 2007

The Mayor of Stamford, Cllr. Jon Poznanski

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to the first issue of The Stamford Town Council Newsletter, a new initiative to engage you, the people of Stamford, with your elected Town Council and inform you of the many activities and initiatives undertaken on behalf of yourselves and the many visitors to our ancient town. It is hoped, indeed encouraged, that through this medium you inform the councillors you have elected to represent you on your Wards how you wish them to speak and act on your behalf at the Town Council.

Stamford Town Council's decisions are the responsibility of the whole body, not that of individuals or political parties. The Town Council is empowered by Parliament to raise funds through local taxation, the precept, and through a range of accountable powers to spend those funds on your behalf. This may include the provision and maintenance of crime prevention measures; park, leisure and recreation grounds; allotments; cemeteries and public conveniences to name but some. The job of the Town Council is to represent the interests of the whole community in all its diversity.

All Town Council and Committee Meetings are open to the public and an opportunity is offered at every meeting for residents to voice their aspirations and concerns directly to the Council. Residents unable to attend such meetings are encouraged to contact their elected Ward Councillor who will address, and directly respond to, issues brought to their attention.

The Stamford Town Council web-site, which is under continuing review and development, also offers individual contact details for all Ward Councillors. Web-site details are included on the back page of this Newsletter, which you may wish to keep for future reference. We all look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Jon Poznanski

SOME KEY RESPONSIBILITIES AND FUNCTIONS OF YOUR MAYOR, COUNCILLORS AND OFFICERS

The Mayor of Stamford, as Chairman of the Town Council, has a special position as the elected head of the Town Council. The Mayor / Chairman must preside at council meetings (unless absent when the Deputy Mayor should preside) and is responsible for ensuring that meetings are conducted properly, with the aim of producing intelligent decisions. He or she also has to represent the council to the local community and beyond.

There is a statutory duty for all councils to prepare an annual budget. The responsibility for preparing the budget rests primarily with the Town Clerk and Town Treasurer, after which it is considered for approval by the Finance Committee before a final version is recommended to the Town Council for ratification. Most council policy decisions have financial implications and these need to be considered carefully at the same time as policy.

The responsibility for policy implementation rests primarily with the Town Clerk; the council makes the decisions and the Town Clerk carries them out. However, councillors often have a role to play in policy implementation, for example, in the representation of the decisions of the council and / or the views of the community to others (e.g. as nominated or elected representatives of the council on other bodies, such as the District Council and on local voluntary organisations and similar).

addition Councillors, in to representing the views, aspirations and concerns of their electors, also have a role to play in suggesting new initiatives or the further development of existing policies; such as undertaking appraisals to establish what local people want for their community. Such appraisals should seek to include and involve the whole community at large with councillors taking a leading role. Councillors also have a duty to ensure that the views of the community are put to the relevant persons or bodies and that the special interests of the communities they represent are protected or promoted as appropriate.

The Town Clerk is the Town Council's chief executive officer and has the prime responsibility for the administration of the council and for carrying out the council's decisions. By analogy with the chief executive of a principal council, the Town Clerk also has the responsibility of advising the council before it takes a decision and warning it against proceeding with a course of action that is unlawful. The Town Clerk is also known as the "proper officer" of the council and has certain statutory duties to perform when the relevant legislation provides, such as to sign the summons for councillors to attend meetings.

STAMFORD TOWN COUNCIL - WORKING TOWARDS QUALITY ACCREDITATION IN 2007

Why become a Quality Council and what are the benefits?

Since the launch of the Quality Parish and Town Council Scheme in March 2003, councils all over the country have been gradually acquiring Quality Status. Becoming a Quality Council will place your Council in the best position to influence principal authority decision-making processes and thus enable your Council to assume additional responsibilities in respect of local problem solving; without primary recourse to the principal authority.

How is Quality Status achieved?

Through a Council demonstrating to the County Accreditation Panel that national standards set by Government are fully met in terms of accountability to local communities, in transparency, representation, providing community leadership and functioning coherently as a professional and competent body.
