WW1 artworks by Wilfrid Wood

From the Collections of Lincolnshire County Council Heritage Service
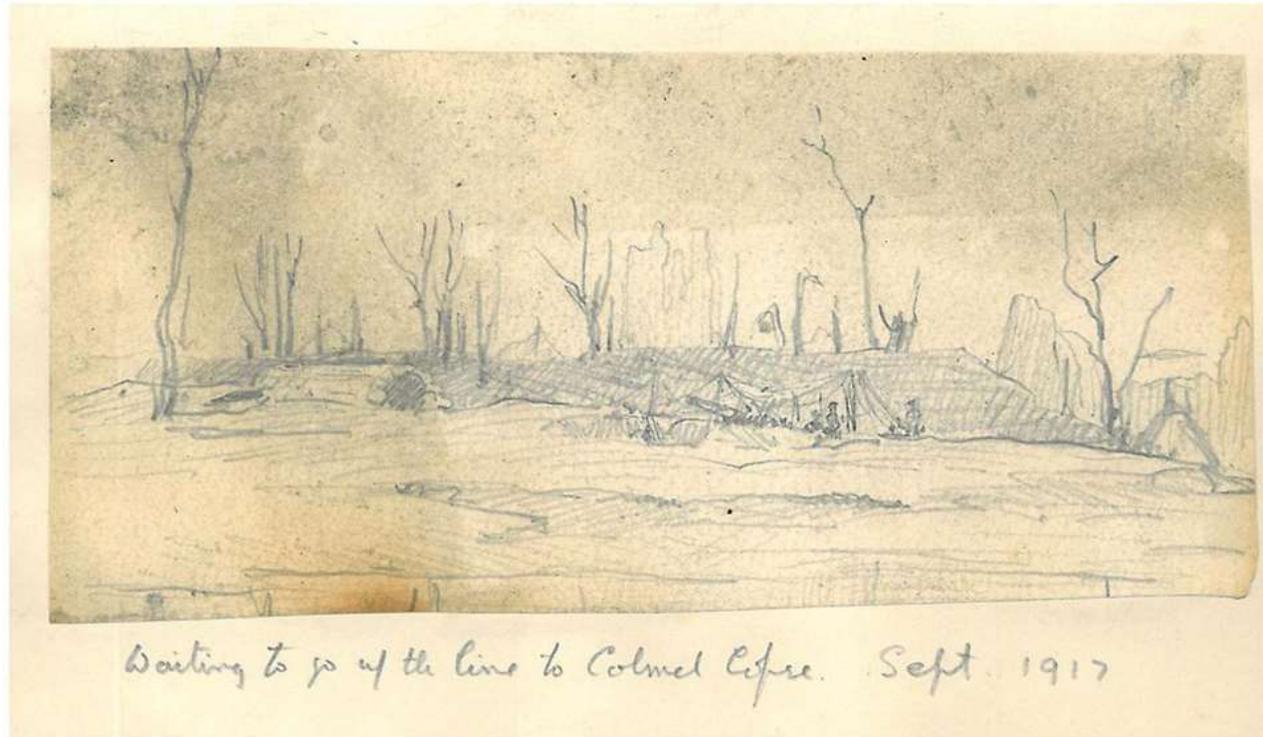

Waiting to go up the line to Colmel Cofre. Sept. 1917

This pencil sketch by Wilfrid Wood effectively conveys the soldier's view of the theatre of war.

BARRAGE GUNS   SEPT 26ᵗʰ 1917   BODMIN WOOD
VICKERS   B PLATOON 123 Coy. M.G.6 41ᵗʰ Div

LOOKING FROM KOREK TO LEFT OF PASSENDALE RIDGE
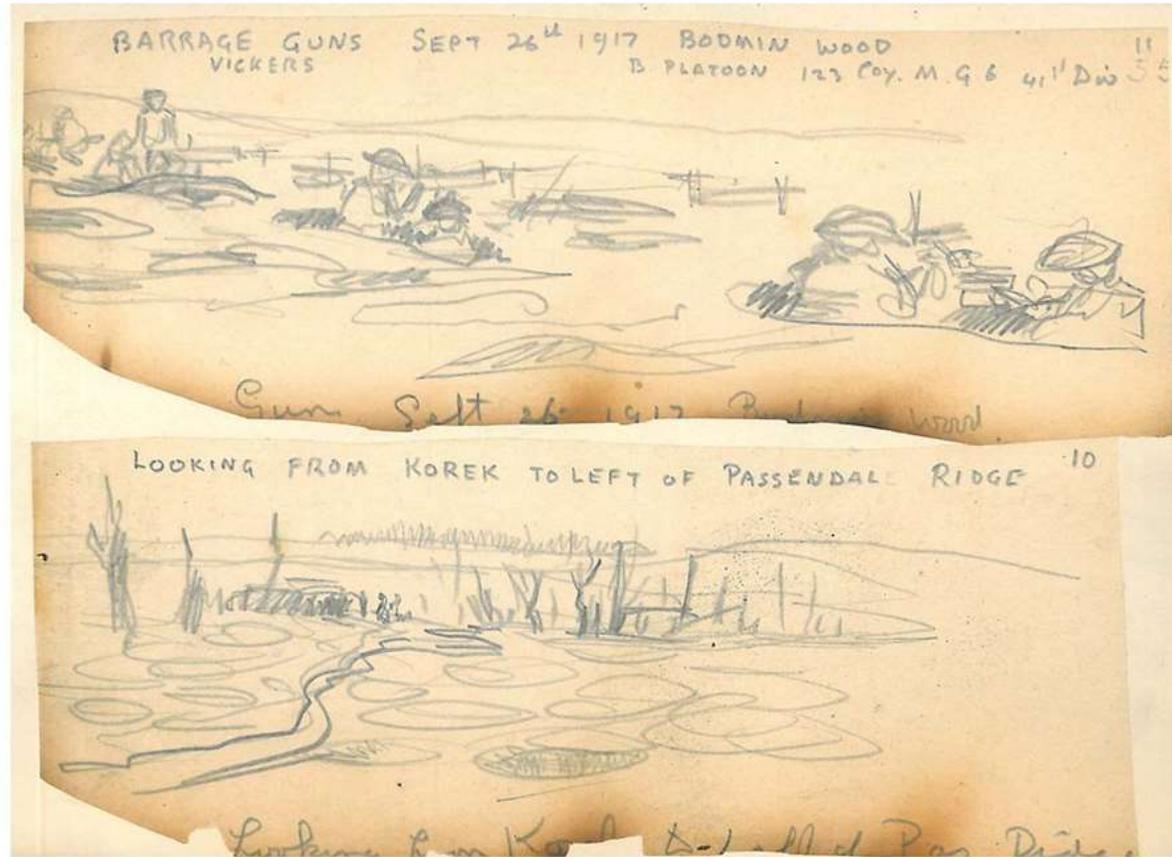

Mores scenes of war torn landscapes and the Front Line,
by Wilfrid Wood

19

Drawing by local artist Wilfrid Wood, made whilst serving near Ypres in 1916. An insight into what awaited those new recruits when they arrived on the Front Line.

Belle Vue TM Pill Box. Roulers Road Paschendal Ridge on Right
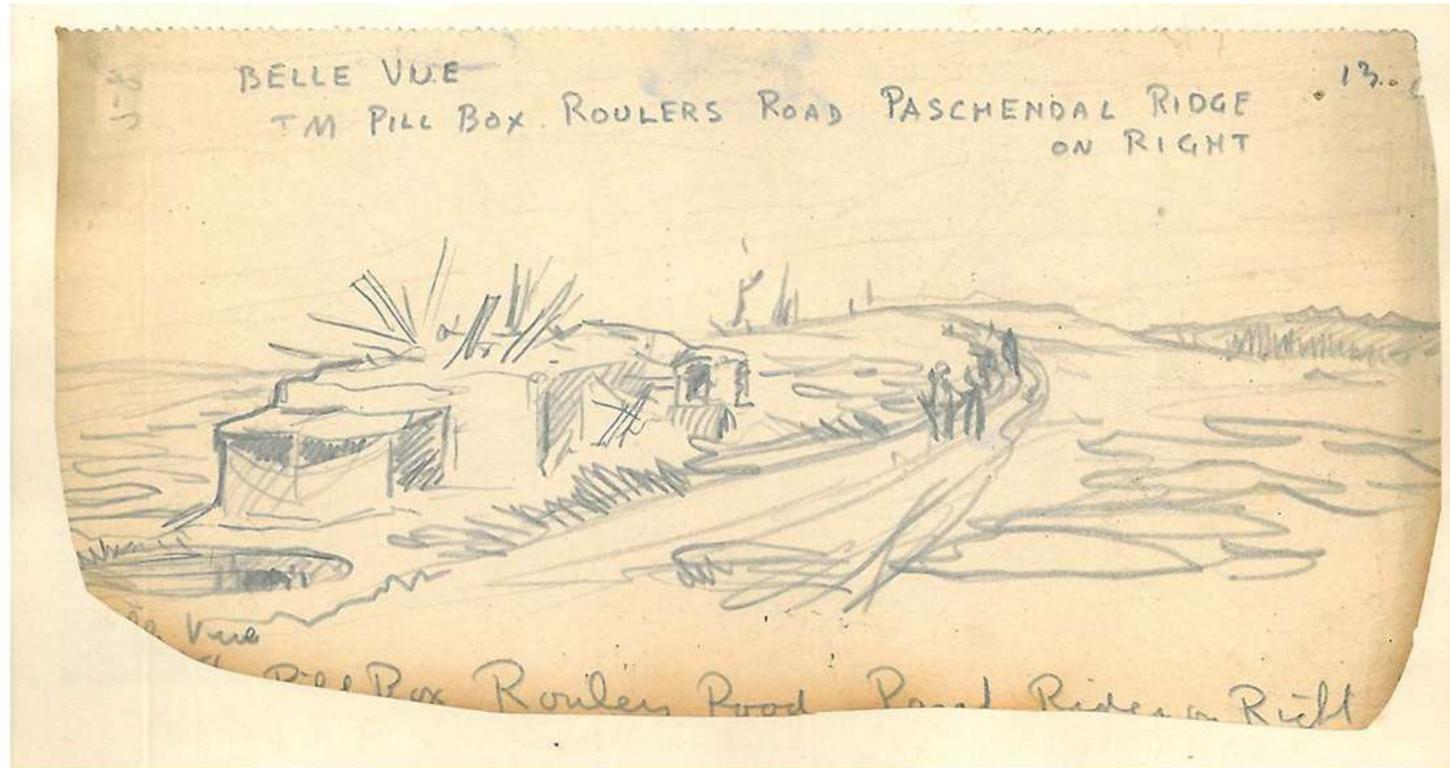

Pencil sketch made by Wilfrid Wood whilst serving on the notorious Paschendale Campaign.

Watercolour sketch by Wilfrid Wood showing gun positions in front of Ypres, 1917
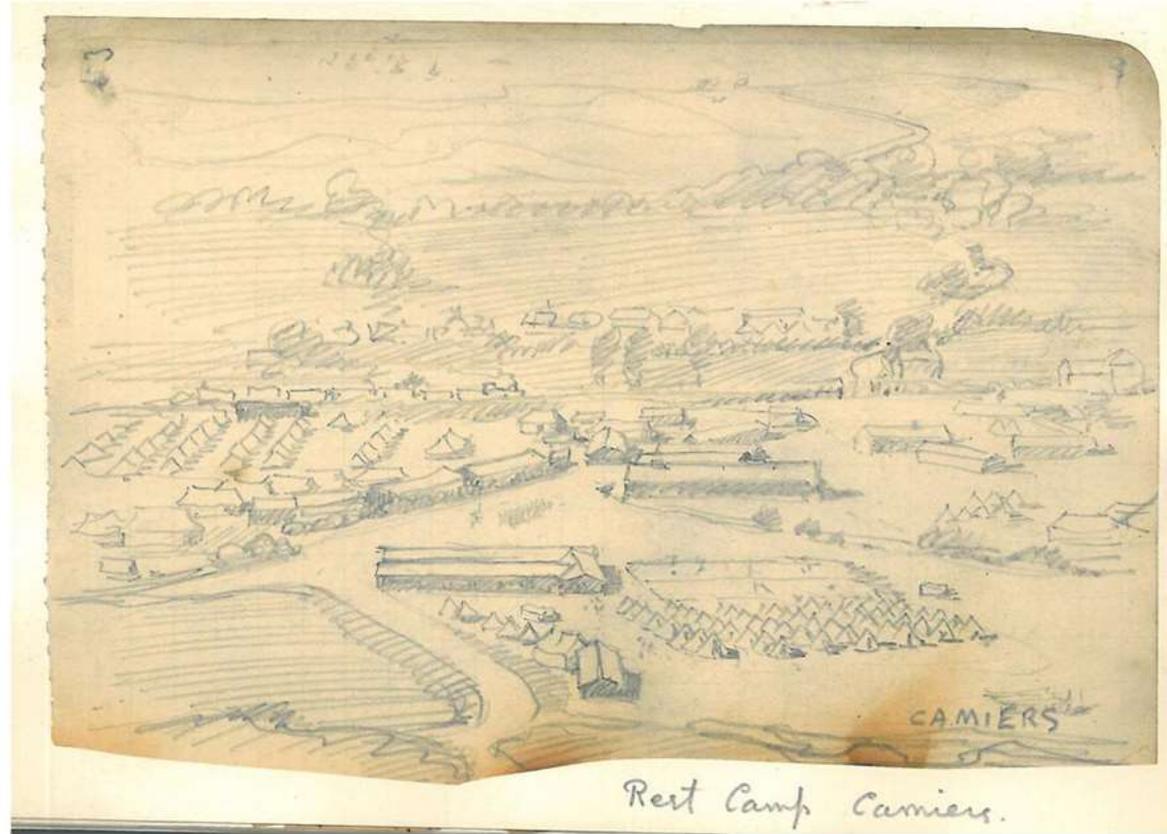

Pencil sketch by Wilfrid Wood of a rest camp near Camiers.

SHRAPNEL ON MONTELLO.   JAN. 1918.   ITALY

Shrapnel on Montello 1918. A vivid depiction of life under fire on the front line, by Wilfrid Wood.
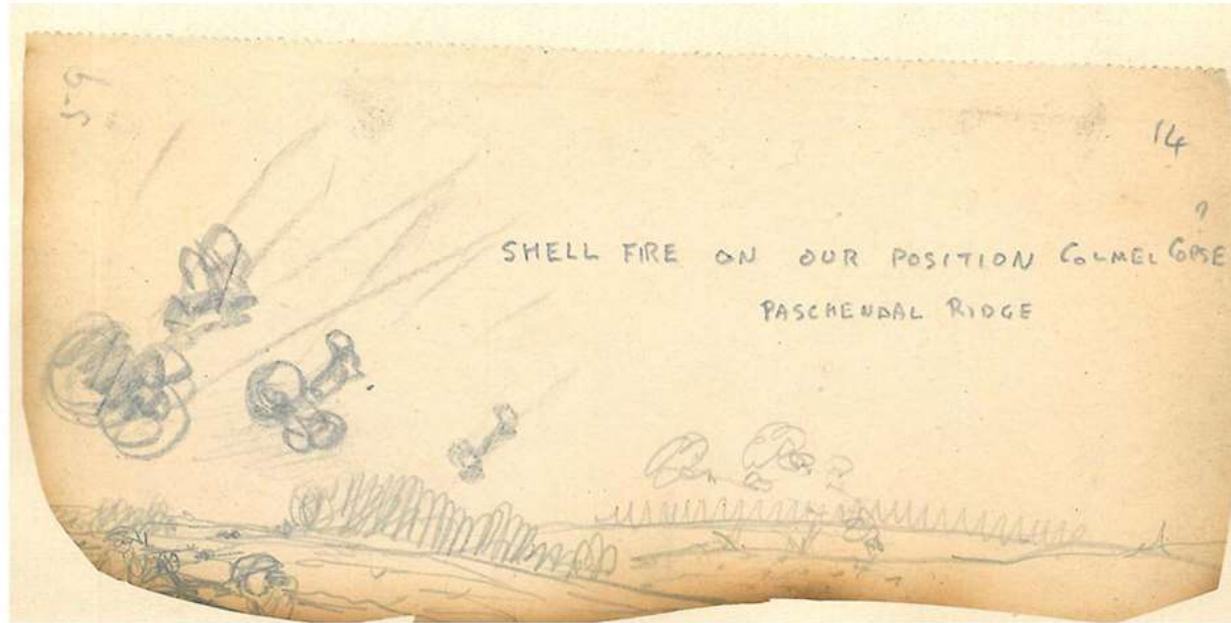

Pencil sketch by Wilfrid Wood showing shellfire over
Paschendale Ridge

MONTE GRAPPA FROM OUR POSITIONS ON MONTELLO.
CHRISTMAS DAY. 1917.

Christmas under fire in 1917, recorded by Wilfrid Wood.

32

Boulogne
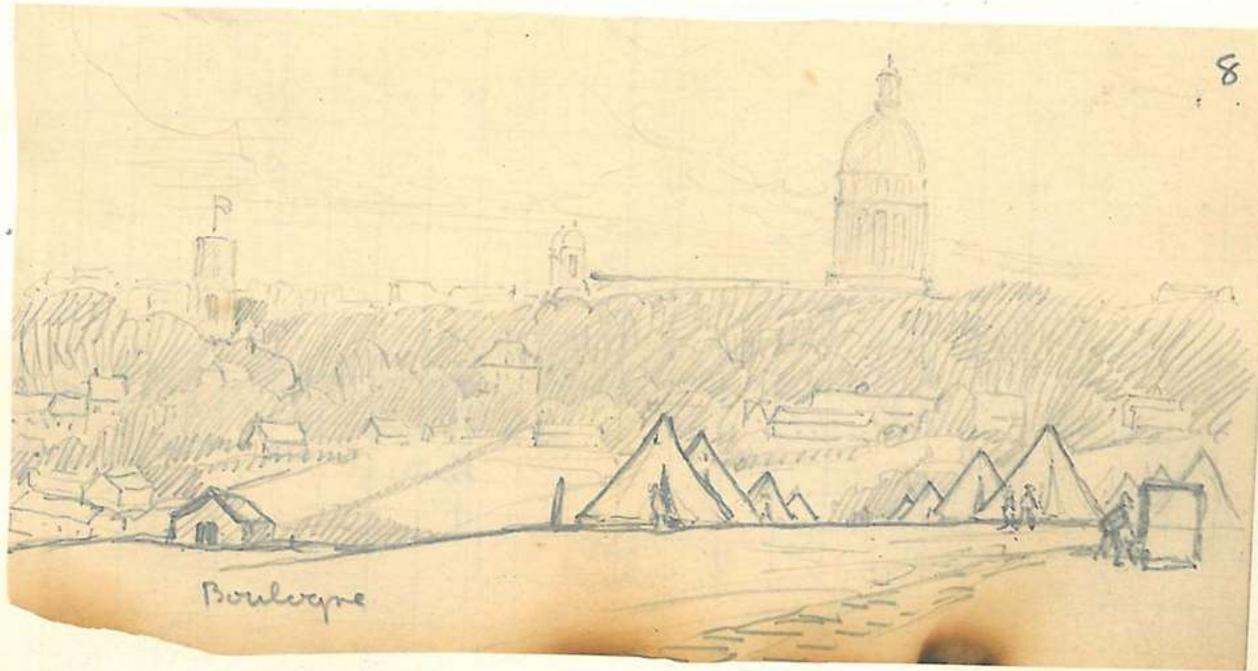

Camp before going home to be demobolized

Pencil drawing by Wilfrid Wood made shortly before being demobilised

41

Etaples. 17/8/17
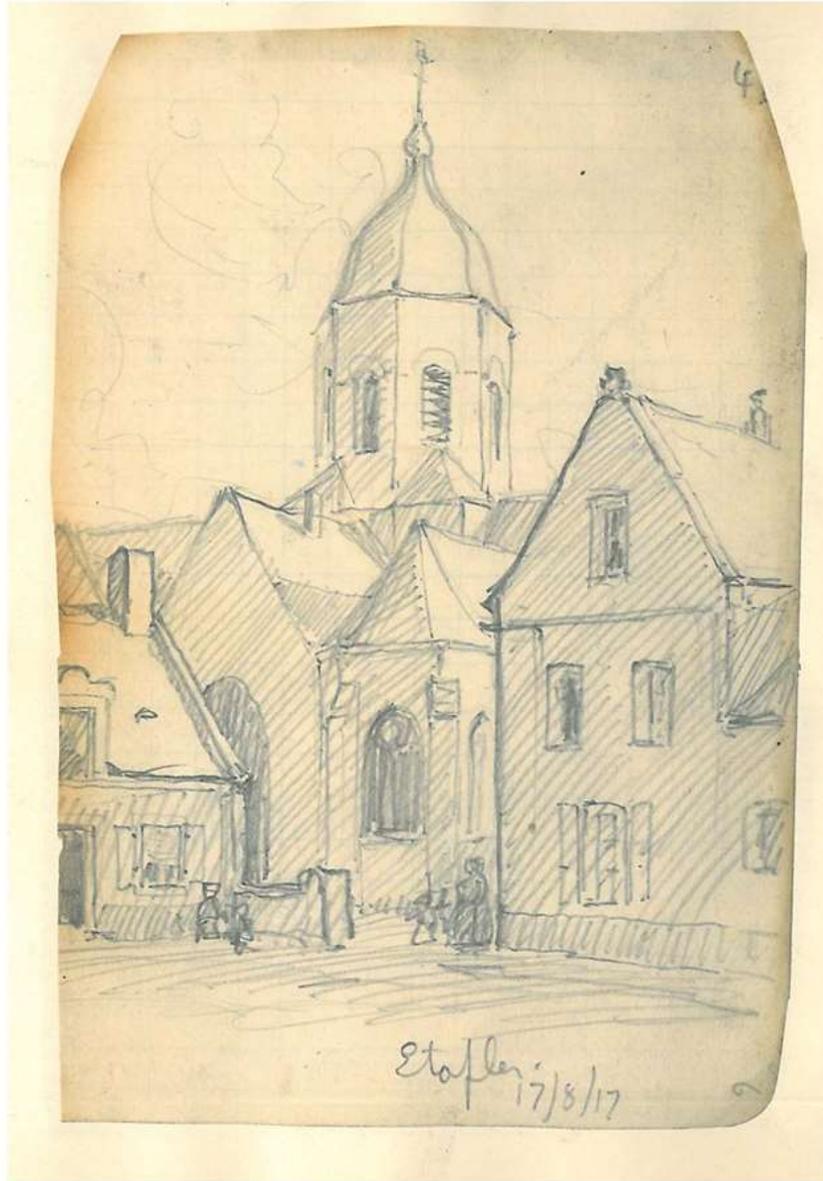

Sketch of a church in Etaples, made by Wilfrid Wood whilst serving in France in 1917